Payment of tuition fees

Payment of the first semester

The tuition fee must be paid no later than 15 May (August/September intake) or 1 November (February intake).

Payment of tuition fees for subsequent semesters:

The tuition fees must be paid no later than one month before the start of each semester.

Prices are fixed within the official duration of the study programme

The prices are fixed within the official duration of the study programme. If the official duration of the study programme is exceeded, subsequent semester payments will correspond to the tuition fee valid at that time.

Alteration of tuition fees

VIA University College will alter the tuition fees for the coming academic year each year in January – or whenever required by circumstances.

Refund Policy

1. If the student has not yet commenced the programme, but the tuition fee has been paid:

- Tuition fee for the first semester is refundable upon separate application if the student is refused a visa by the Danish authorities.

- If the student wishes to withdraw from the study programme for any reason other than refusal of visa:

The tuition fee for the first semester will not be refunded.

2. If the student has commenced the programme, and the semester has begun:

If the semester has begun, and the student wishes to withdraw from the study programme:

No tuition fee will be refunded for the current semester.

3. Failure to pass a semester:

If the student fails to pass a semester and consequently cannot commence in the next semester and therefore wishes to withdraw from the study programme, already paid tuition fee for the next semester with deduction of an administration fee of DKK 3.750 is refundable.

Please note:

No fee refunds of any kind will be granted to students who have been suspended for disciplinary reasons.

Students with outstanding financial obligations to VIA University College will not receive grades, transcripts of records, diplomas or other documents until their accounts are settled.
